CHEM SAFE™
2000

The demands of meeting OSHA's Hazard Communication and Right-to-Know requirements could give anybody heartburn.

But failing to comply can be even more unhealthy.

Don't risk it; call 1-800-233-6067 today for your free preview of ChemSafe 2000—the newly updated, video-based safety training program from BNA Communications.

In nine video modules, it covers all the chemicals that make workers burn, gasp and wheeze... and meets OSHA's hazard communication training requirements.

Why run the risk of noncompliance? Order your free preview today.
